

The background image shows the exterior of a restaurant named 'Nick's English Hut'. The building is made of brick and has a large sign that says 'Nick's' in a stylized font. Below the main sign, there's a striped awning with the word 'INDIAN' partially visible. To the right, another sign says 'h Hut'. In the foreground, there's an outdoor seating area with several people sitting at tables. A man in a light blue shirt and khaki pants is standing near a table. A woman in a red shirt is walking towards the right. There are also some outdoor umbrellas, one of which is red and white striped. The overall scene is a busy outdoor dining area.
